

Radio: "Depressed"

LEGAL: With approved credit...

SFX: Music: 'sad' violins kick in after third sentence.

Annrc: Can I let you in on a professional secret? The '99 trucks and SUV's at Metro Ford know the 2000's are coming, so their self-esteem is at an all time low. No dignity, no pride. They're fully equipped and they're still practically throwing themselves at the first person who shows the slightest bit of interest. Why, they're so depressed, these poor 1999 Expeditions, Explorers and F-150's are willing to sell or lease themselves off for only 5 dollars down and 95 dollars a month. This is sad, folks. But for 5 dollars down and 95 dollars a month, you should take one home. It may cry a little at first, but if treated nicely, it'll eventually get over it. If not, at 5 dollars down and 95 dollars a month, you can afford therapy.

Tagline: Metro Ford. Located on northwest seventh avenue and ninetieth street, just off I-95.
